A TALE OF SOUTHERN INDIANA'S RIVER TOWNS.

Clark and Floyd Counties in Southern Indiana are home to urban amenities and rural charm.

Walk from one state to another, crossing the mile-long Big Four Bridge which connects Louisville and Jeffersonville. Pedestrians get spectacular views of the Ohio River and surrounding landscapes.

Jeffersonville and New Albany's historic, walkable downtowns have come alive with local shops, antique stores, art galleries, museums, restaurants, and outdoor concerts, movies in parks and amphitheatres. Clarksville's mall, Bass Pro Shop, famous retail and restaurant franchises offer familiar food and fun.

FROM RIVER ROCKS TO ROCKIN' ON THE RIVER

...NOBODY SPEAKS ECLECTIC QUITE LIKE WE DO.

The Falls of the Ohio State Park's 390-million-year-old fossil beds are among the largest, naturally exposed, Devonian fossil beds in the world, and are a must-see for history and science enthusiasts. Sharing the river with our neighbor, Louisville, your group will enjoy concert cruises aboard America's oldest steamboat, the Belle of Louisville.
