Road to Tara Museum and Stately Oaks Celebrate Gone With the Wind Birthdays

Jonesboro, GA - November is a month of Gone With the Wind birthday celebrations. Vivien Leigh, who portrayed Scarlett O'Hara, has a birthday on November 5th and Margaret Mitchell's is on November 8th. The Road to Tara Museum and Stately Oaks want visitors to celebrate the birthdays with them.

On Saturday, November 5th, the Road to Tara Museum is offering free admission on Saturday, November 5 to the museum and visitors can also enjoy "buy one get one free" historic bus tour tickets for the Gone With the Wind tour. The tour will run at 11:00 am and 1:00 pm.

Stately Oaks Plantation is hosting a Margaret Mitchell Birthday Celebration on Saturday, November 5 at the Bethel Schoolhouse, located on the grounds. Visitors will enjoy a visit from "Margaret Mitchell," watch and learn from a dance demonstration, play Gone With the Wind trivia, and enjoy cake and punch. There will also be a Gone With the Wind dress contest, so dress in your best Gone With the Wind dress and see who wins. The birthday celebration is $5 and is a separate cost from the tour through Stately Oaks Plantation.

"Come out and celebrate the birthdays of Margaret Mitchell, author of the infamous novel, and Vivien Leigh, who brought Scarlett O'Hara to life. This is a fun time to visit these attractions for the first time or your hundredth as you'll see and experience something new. Bring your festive spirit and have a fun time celebrating these two historic women," says Danielle Conroy, Director of Marketing and Communications at the Clayton County Convention and Visitors Bureau.

The Clayton County Convention & Visitors Bureau is the official tourism marketing agency for Clayton County. The CCCVB advertises and promotes the area to bring business to hotels, attractions, historical sites and meeting facilities within Clayton County and its neighboring communities.
