SHOPPING: Sawgrass Mills, the world's largest single-story discount mall, features the high-end Colonnade Outlets. Find more discount shopping at Festival Flea Market Mall and Fort Lauderdale Swap Shop, the largest indoor/outdoor flea market in the South. The Galleria at Fort Lauderdale, an upscale shopping mall with stores including Dillards and Michael Kors, is complemented by traditional Florida shopping avenues such as Las Olas Boulevard and Dania Beach's Antique Row and beach boutiques. Other shopping stops include the new Dania Pointe, the Village at Gulfstream Park and independent boutiques such as the Wander Shop apparel and accessories in Oakland Park and Montce Swim in Flagler Village.

DINING AND ENTERTAINMENT: More than 4,000 wining and dining establishments and 132 nightclubs are located in Broward County. The culinary scene is filled with rising star chefs, exciting restaurants, breweries and pubs, coffee houses and scenic dock-and-dine eateries along with many great hotel restaurants. Explore Greater Fort Lauderdale's Ale Trail featuring more than 60 nanobreweries, industrial microbreweries, beer gardens and brewpubs, as well as a growing number of spirits distilleries.

SPORTS: Water Sports: There are 24 miles of beaches in Broward County that are perfect for sailing, swimming, kite surfing, windsurfing, water skiing, boating, deep-sea fishing, parasailing, paddle boarding, kayaking, wakeboarding, snorkeling and scuba diving.

Boating: The Atlantic Ocean and Intracoastal Waterway, along with more than 300 miles of canals and waterways throughout the area are perfect for any kind of boating. There are several sailing schools throughout Broward plus 148 marinas and 35 boat repair yards that provide boat fuel, services and supplies.

Fishing: This is one of the few areas in the world where both freshwater and saltwater fishing is within 20 minutes of the angler. In addition to numerous freshwater species including peacock and largemouth bass that can be caught in the Everglades as well as area lakes and canals, there are deep water fishing fleets located in each of the cities that line the Atlantic coast, along with four municipal piers stretching out into the Atlantic Ocean.

Football: The Miami Dolphins play at Hard Rock Stadium.

Biking: Get in shape or just cruise on Greater Fort Lauderdale's many bike routes including State Road A1A along Fort Lauderdale Beach, the Hollywood Broadwalk, along El Mar Drive in Lauderdale-By-The Sea and streets in neighborhoods like Rio Vista and Coral Ridge. Go fast around the track at Brian Piccolo Park & Velodrome or cruise the paved, two-mile loop at Hugh Taylor Birch State Park. Find mountain bike trails at Markham Park and Quiet Waters Park.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Close to 600 lodging establishments with more than 37,000 hotel rooms range from luxurious high-rises to many charming small boutique hotels and motels. The diverse mix of Greater Fort Lauderdale accommodations encompasses oceanfront and inland properties, specialized spa resorts, business, meeting and convention facilities.

CONVENTION CENTER: The first phase of the highly anticipated Greater Fort Lauderdale/Broward County Convention Center expansion – the newly updated 800,000 sq. ft. pre-existing center with an expanded 350,000 sq. ft. exhibit hall – opened Oct. 27, 2021. Work on the remainder of the $1.1 billion expansion continues, including the new eastside expansion with waterfront ballrooms, meetings rooms and kitchen facilities, a five-acre outdoor waterfront plaza and an 800-room, five-story headquarters hotel interconnected with the convention center. Full completion will increase the facility's size to 1.2 million sq. ft. and is expected in late 2025.

ACCESSIBILITY: International Airport: Broward County is served by the Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport. The airport offers nonstop service to over 100 U.S. and international cities.

Rental Cars: Fort Lauderdale / Hollywood International Airport's Rental Car Center brings most of the major rental car companies under one roof. At more than 4 million square feet, the nine-level structure is the largest consolidated rental car facility in the United States and one of the largest parking garages in Florida. Levels 1 through 4 are the new home of Advantage Rent A Car, Alamo, Avis, Budget, Dollar, Enterprise, E-Z Rent A Car, Hertz, National, Payless, Royal and Thrifty. Levels 5 through 9 are public parking.

Local Transportation -- The Broward County Mass Transit bus system connects all municipalities and interconnects with Palm Beach and Dade Counties. Discounted weekly visitor passes for unlimited transportation are available. Taxis and limousine companies operate throughout the county. The Fort Lauderdale Water Taxi system provides transportation to shops, attractions, hotels, Fort Lauderdale beach and restaurants. The City of Fort Lauderdale's LauderGO! transportation system includes the free Fort Lauderdale Community Shuttle (formerly known as Sun Trolley) with five routes, including the Beach Link providing free transportation up and down Fort Lauderdale's famous beach; the free Water Trolley on the downtown section of the New River; and the Seabreeze Tram, providing convenient transportation between the Las Olas Parking Garage and Las Olas Oceanside Park and the beach. South Florida's Tri-Rail provides railway transportation throughout Broward County including from downtown Fort Lauderdale to the Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport, as well as routes to Miami and Palm Beach. Additionally, the Brightline is a high-speed train service connecting downtown Fort Lauderdale to downtown Miami and downtown West Palm Beach.
