Region: Central Prairie – North

The Central Prairie North region offers a wide variety of fascinating museums, outdoor adventures and evidence of creativity and innovation. Follow the Post Rock Scenic Byway where miles of stone fence posts stand as a tribute to the early settlers. A mixture of farmland, rolling hills, and man-made lakes, central Kansas is a transition zone between the hilly east and the western high plains.

Belleville

1. Boyer Museum of Animated Carvings*
   Be mesmerized by the 65 animated carvings and motion displays created by Paul Boyer, a self-taught artist who has been carving for more 60 years. Paul's delightfully original work consists of a working calliope made from cedar, animated hand-carved figurines and moving wire sculptures.

Marquette

8. Mushroom Rock State Park* / Kanopolis Reservoir, State Park and Smoky Hill Wildlife Area
One of the most unique state parks in Kansas, Mushroom Rock State Park boasts some of the most unusual rock formations anywhere. Resembling giant mushrooms rising above the horizon, these rocks served as meeting places and landmarks for Indians and early pioneers. Nearby Kanopolis State Park is situated in the rolling hills, bluffs and woods of the scenic Smoky Hills. From towering Dakota sandstone bluffs to caves and crevices of Horsethief Canyon, the park offers rugged beauty and stunning vistas to hikers, bikers and horseback riders. The 3,500-acre lake and 12,500-acre wildlife area provide anglers and hunters abundant fish and game. Be sure to explore Faris Caves, carved by early pioneers for use as milk house, school house, and living quarters.
