Moon Marble

family fun

Bring your whole family together

By Heather Swan

Oh, summertime! School is out, the days are a little more relaxed and it's time for some fun family togetherness, right?

As a mom, summer is great — and a little bit of a double-edged sword. While it's good to function on a not-so-strict schedule, it can also lead to a lot of downtime.

To conquer the boredom and make the most out of your family time together, there are tons of fun attractions in Kansas City, KS. The best part is that these activities appeal to all ages (adults included).

One of my son's favorite places to go is Moon Marble in Bonner Springs. On a recent tour, he learned how to play marbles and how the artists make these glass spheres. The demonstrations are free; the only cost is for souvenirs.

"Their gift shop is gigantic," my son said. "It has things you can't find anywhere else. Also, they have really cool marbles."

For my daughter, one of her all-time favorite "field trips" was to T-Rex Café. Transported to a prehistoric world (complete with animatronic dinosaurs), visitors can eat, explore in the Discovery Dig and Discovery Creek, and take home a new stuffed dinosaur friend.

"I like T-Rex Café because I can eat with the dinosaurs," she said. "At Build-A-Dino (by Build-A-Bear Workshop), I built Tracy the Triceratops."

Or take the fun outside at Legends Outlets Kansas City. Besides being an eclectic mix of stores, restaurants and movie theaters, it also offers a history lesson of 80 legendary Kansans.

For water sport enthusiasts, be sure to check out Schlitterbahn Kansas City Waterpark and Wyandotte County Lake & Park.

Schlitterbahn truly has activities for all ages, while families enjoy the natural beauty of Wyandotte County Lake & Park.

So, gather your family together and enjoy summer Kansas City, KS-style.

Get in the game

Are you tired of sitting on that sofa and being a sports spectator? If you like watching professional soccer, baseball and auto racing, you can easily go from a couch potato to a fan in the stands in Kansas City, KS.

The city is the proud home of the Kansas City T-Bones, a professional baseball team in the American Association of Independent Professional Baseball. The T-Bones team caters to fans and families by making this trip to the ballpark friendly, affordable and accessible.

"I really enjoyed taking my family to see a Kansas City T-Bones game," said Jimmy Lopez of Kansas City, KS. "You can sit close enough to the action that you feel like you are a part of the game and not merely a spectator. The T-Bones make the game fun for kids and families, and the between-inning festivities are just as much fun as the game!"

Another fun sports experience is at Sporting Park, home to Major League Soccer's Sporting Kansas City. The soccer-specific stadium features high-definition video boards and a canopy roof covering all sections.

Does the roar of engines send a tingle up your spine? If so, visit Kansas Speedway during race weekends and see some of your favorite NASCAR stars.

If you would rather hunt, fish or camp, Cabela's is a great place to get started or fuel your passion. Cabela's is a one-stop shop for outdoor aficionados with its 180,000-square-foot showroom.

For those who want to hit the links, Kansas City, KS, has three golf courses: Dub's Dread, Painted Hills Golf Club and Sunflower Hill Golf Course.

No matter what sport you enjoy playing or watching, Kansas City, KS, is at the center of all the action.

lodging

Just as there are many attractions to visit in Kansas City, KS, you will also find a wide variety of places to stay. Your options include everything from an RV park and hotels to a bed-and-breakfast and waterpark resort.

One of the unique lodging options in Kansas City, KS, is Chateau Avalon. Located on 28 wooded acres, Chateau Avalon offers 61 themed guest rooms and suites. During summer, the impressive fountain greets guests and visitors can spend time on the outdoor patio.

"I have had the opportunity to stay at Chateau Avalon for both business and leisure," said Liz Kietzman of North Kansas City, MO. "I was impressed at how well this hotel can handle both. Besides the concept suite accommodations (with themes like Mayan Rainforest and Colorado Frontier), Chateau Avalon is home to classic/business rooms and state-of-the-art meeting and event space."

Another unique lodging choice is Great Wolf Lodge. While many think of this resort as a perfect getaway during the winter months (with its 84-degree indoor waterpark), Great Wolf Lodge is just as fun for summer vacations.

The Thunder Bay Outdoor Pool area has a 122,000-gallon outdoor pool, water basketball, kids activities, floor geysers and spray features.

"My family had a blast at Great Wolf Lodge," said Kelli Hilliard of Topeka, KS.

"Everyone talks about how great the waterpark is — and rightfully so. But kids have just as much fun in the room and exploring Great Wolf Lodge's other amenities. We stayed in the KidCabin Suite with a miniature log cabin that doubled as the kids' sleeping quarters. That will be an experience they will always remember."

Once you narrow down your many lodging options, book your unforgettable stay in Kansas City, KS, and enjoy!
