

The Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority registers as lobbyists, in agreement with Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS), and files all required reports on expenditures. A good faith estimate of the total expenses of its lobbying activities are reported and there have been no lobby-related expenditures found to be out of compliance for the last three consecutive legislative sessions.