

Shriners Hospitals for Children

Las Vegas Host Committee is honored to welcome the Shriners Hospitals for Children Open returning for its 37th consecutive year to Las Vegas, Sept. 30–Oct. 6 at TPC Summerlin.

The annual PGA Tour event brings Bryson DeChambeau, one of the many top golfers in the world, to participate in the competition and help support the mission of Shriners Hospitals for Children, providing exceptional child health care nationwide.

Started in 1983, the Shriners Open has become an ongoing tradition and is the second event in the FedExCup Championship Tournament. Shriners Hospitals for Children is a network of 22 nonprofit medical facilities across North America and will receive all proceeds from this open. Shriners Hospitals is recognized as “The World’s Greatest Philanthropy,” as well as a special place that focuses on pediatric care, cutting edge research, and outstanding medical teaching programs.

Shriners Hospitals for Children Open is expected to attract 54,225 attendees to the Las Vegas area and generate over $11 million in economic impact.

Join us in welcoming golf enthusiasts and philanthropists alike by posting on social media using the template provided below.

TWITTER

For the 37th consecutive year, golf fans support @ShrinersOpen @TPCSummerlinAGR!
@PGATOUR #FedExCup is always #LiveUnderPar! #VegasIsSports