Custom Trolley Tours of Historic Milledgeville

For groups of 10 or more, we offer customized group trolley tours of historic Milledgeville throughout the year. Our professional guides will share with your group the history and legend of “Georgia’s Antebellum Capital.”

The trolley will seat up to 24 people. The CVB will provide you a guide and driver for $45 per hour. Please choose from the list below which site(s) you would like to tour:

ATTRACTIONS	DESCRIPTION	PER PERSON RATE
Old Capital Building	Georgia’s Old State Capitol, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, served Georgia for 61 years as the seat of government. The debates held here affected the course of the nation and shaped the future of Georgia.	$5
St. Stephens Episcopal Church	Hear the history and legend about this c.1841 church that once quartered General Sherman’s horses during the Civil War.	$2
Brown-Stetson-Sanford House	Built in 1825 this home is an exquisite example of Milledgeville Federal style architecture. Step back in time in this antebellum home.	$5
Old Governor’s Mansion	This National Historic Landmark was home to Georgia Governors from 1839-1868. Just reopened after an extensive restoration, this is the “Jewel of Georgia” and the most perfect example of Greek Revival architecture. (Allow one hour to tour this home)	$7.49
Andalusia	The picturesque farm where American author Flannery O’Connor lived from 1951 until her death in 1964. At Andalusia, Flannery found the source of many of the settings and fictional characters that are the signature of her stories.	$5
Lockerly Arboretum and Rose Hill	The arboretum showcases flora native to the Piedmont area and experimental plantings. Rose Hill, c.1852, is a Greek Revival home and the centerpiece to the arboretum.	$5
Trolley Tour	Tour your group through the historical downtown area and share the history and legends of “Georgia’s Antebellum Capital.”	$10

Your guide will meet you at the Milledgeville Convention and Visitors Bureau on 200 West Hancock Street. We will be happy to assist with lunch or dinner reservations, if needed.
