Enjoy laidback luxury in the Myrtle Beach area with world-class dining and inviting spa retreats

The perfect way to spoil yourself

Vacations don't come along every day. So, when they do, it's the perfect time for travelers to unwind, rejuvenate and indulge. While Myrtle Beach makes it easy for travelers to save, the area's offerings allow for just the right amount of "laid back luxury" – fulfilling the high standards of discerning travelers with its impeccable dining and pampering spas. So, spend a day on the beach soaking up the sun while not forgetting to spend a little time spoiling yourself.

Decadent dining experiences

21 Main at North Beach

Visitors looking for a bite from the Big Apple can find just that in the Myrtle Beach area. Inspired by the New York City-based eatery, 21 Main at North Beach features the finest 28-day dry-aged meats and an assortment of fresh seafood. Diners also rank the restaurant's sushi as the best they've found along the Grand Strand. So, come on in to see New York style and Southern charm come together. For more information, go to www.21mainnorthbeach.com.

Aspen Grille

It's Southern comfort food with a twist. Located off South Kings Highway in Myrtle Beach, Aspen Grille has been serving up such Carolina staples as shrimp and grits since its reopening in 2009. And chances are good you won't have the same meal twice, as the menu changes seasonally. And servers can offer suggestions on the perfect wine from the restaurant's hand-selected list. For more information, go to www.aspen-grille.com.

Café Amalfi at the Hilton Myrtle Beach Resort at Kingston Resorts

The majestic wonder of the Atlantic Ocean makes for the perfect dining ambiance. And that's what guests will find if they stop for breakfast, lunch or dinner at Café Amalfi. Located at the Hilton Myrtle Beach Resort at Kingston Shores, this airy and romantic restaurant offers casual fine dining and a host of culinary favorites. For more information, call (843) 449-5000.

Croissants Bistro and Bakery

Who doesn't love a good cup of coffee, sandwiches and delectable cupcakes? You'll find all that and more at Croissants Bistro and Bakery. Located off Grissom Parkway in Myrtle Beach, this award-winning restaurant and bakery has been pleasing palettes since 1995. In addition to fine dining options, Croissants is also available for wedding cakes and catering for special events in the Myrtle Beach area. For more information, go to www.croissants.net.

The Cypress Room at Island Vista

Located at the beautiful Island Vista hotel, The Cypress Room is an award-winning restaurant with a menu to please the most discriminating palette – and a view to match. With floor-to-ceiling views of the ocean, diners can gaze into the sunset over the water while enjoying the finest European-influenced Low Country cuisine along the Grand Strand. Or, they can start the day right with the restaurant's famed Southern Breakfast. Either way, it's a dining experience not to be missed. For more information, visit www.islandvista.com/dining.

Original Benjamin's

A landmark in the Myrtle Beach area, The Original Benjamin's Calabash Seafood serves fresh local seafood daily including a delectable 170-item buffet. Visitors will enjoy waterfront dining with an open-air deck overlooking the Intracoastal Waterway. The nautical museum features some of the largest ship models and a collection of mounted sea creatures including fish, sharks and exotic creatures from the sea.
