

1. Rise and Shine. Breakfast is an important meal, especially for growing and learning minds. Rise and shine with a breakfast burrito from one of a hundred restaurants on the New Mexico True Breakfast Burrito Byway. Remember: Mornings can be chile.
2. Dive Into Culture. New Mexico is rich with 1,000 years of Native culture— 23 Pueblos and Nations each with distinct stories, art, food and living traditions. We're also home to five of USA Today's 10Best Native American Experiences.
3. Get Your Kicks on our Stretch of 66. The iconic Route 66 is well known throughout America, but New Mexico's stretch is rich with authentic culture and living history, most of which still stands today. Take a nostalgic road trip on and off the Mother Road in the Land of Enchantment.
4. Capture the Cosmos. With low light pollution and open skies, you can see stars for miles on the New Mexico Dark Skies Trail. We're home to five International Dark Sky locations and some of the best stargazing opportunities on Earth.
5. Off the Beaten Path. Explore Kasha-Ka-Tuwe Tent Rocks, dormant volcanoes, ancient lava flows, ice caves, archeological digs and much more.
6. Time to Relax. Relax the New Mexico True way with spa treatments that uses locally sourced ingredients.
7. A Taste of New Mexico. Careful, things can get heated here! Many locally-owned restaurants hold culinary treasures.
8. Fix Your Eyes on This. Visit and site see some of the nation's oldest cathedrals.
9. Take a Hike. Discover state parks that are often under the radar or unknown to the public. But if you are looking to stay close to Las Cruces, check out the Organ Mountains.
10. Satisfy Your Sweet Tooth. Try unique and decadent desserts that will leave you wanting more.
11. Ghost Towns. Once upon a time in the late 1800's, many of the now ghost towns in New Mexico were booming with fun, excitement and riches. Want to narrow down your search close to Las Cruces? Check out Mesilla, although not exactly a ghost town but living history.
12. Festivals and Fun. Whether you're a music lover, shopper, foodie and all in between, New Mexico towns have an event for you. Check out what's happening in Las Cruces, near Spaceport America.
13. Take a Dip. Cool down at a nearby lake or river in Sierra County all while having fun boating, fishing, kayaking and more.
14. Cowboy Up. Saddle up and ride a horse at the Geronimo Trails Guest Ranch.
15. Connect with Nature. With 360,000 acres to explore, the Ted Turner Expeditions crafts the best adventure for you.
16. Camp Out. Experience Back to Nature camping and Dark Sky's at Sierra County Lakes, State Parks, the Gila National Forest, Gila National Wilderness and Alpo Leopold Wilderness Areas.

