Explore the cultural, historical, and culinary highlights of the Trøndelag region

(Trøndelag / Innherred and Trondheim)

Description

We would like to invite you to a beautiful journey through Trøndelag, also known as Central Norway. On this trip you will stay at some of the region's best accommodations, learn more about exciting Viking history and get into the Christmas spirit at one of Norway's most beautiful Christmas markets. Trøndelag and its biggest city Trondheim has been given The European Region of Gastronomy title for year 2022 because of its many local food producers and long-standing traditions. You will learn more about the food culture and taste some of the best food products in the region.
