Mountain Adventures

Highlights:

- Valdres folk museum Explore a living open air museum with craftsmen and farmers
- Mountain spa Enjoy the new spa and pool center at Beitostølen resort
- Tasting experiences Our mountain hotels and restaurants take pride in their both contemporary and traditional cuisine, always based on local produce
- Kayaking in the fjords Gaze up on the surrounding mountains while we cross the fjord in kayaks
- Jotunheimen national park Our journey goes from east to west on the south border of the most alpine national park in Norway
- The Kings Road over Filefjell Once a roadbuilding masterpiece, now a scenic hiking route between the peaks of Jotunheimen and the deep blue fjords of Sogn.
- Canoe trip and Moose tower Guided canoe trip, stone age petroglyphs, wildlife, storytelling and lunch by the moose tower
- Mjølkevegen cycling route Get a taste of Ebike cycling in the mountains

We'll provide you with all special equipment (such as life jacket and bike helmet), but make sure to bring enough clothes suited to spend a lot of time outdoors. In our mountain areas we can have both hot summer temperatures and down to zero degrees in June:

- Wool underwear and socks
- Shorts and T-shirt
- Warm mid-layer (fleece, wool sweater or similar)
- Wind- and waterproof jacket and pants
- Hat and gloves
- Hiking boots
- Sunglasses
- Swimwear
- Small backpack to carry snacks, extra clothes, camera and other amenities you might want to bring for the activities
- A book for the evenings
- Toiletries
- Lunch box and thermos is recommended
