Ten Enshrined in the Peninsula Sports Hall of Fame

Ten individuals were inducted into the Peninsula Sports Hall of Fame on the evening of June 8 at the Green Hills Country Club in Millbrae

The Hall of Fame, founded in 1989, honors sports figures that have had an impact on the Peninsula athletic scene and beyond.

The Hall of Fame induction banquet is presented annually by the San Mateo County/Silicon Valley Convention and Visitors Bureau, headquartered in Burlingame.

The Hall of Fame is located at the San Mateo County History Museum in downtown Redwood City. Currently, there are more than 250 members of the Hall of Fame.

These are the 2016 inductees:

Jenny Circle, dominant Sacred Heart Prep basketball player.

Tom Dooley, U.S. Olympian from College of San Mateo.

Bill Green, national-caliber sprinter from Cubberley High.

John Horgan, sports writer, columnist, former sports editor for San Mateo County Times.

Bob Keropian, regional president of National Football Foundation.

Randy Metheany, record-setting Hillsdale High softball coach.

Christie McCoy Hjelm, outstanding softball player from Aragon High.

Bob Rush, former track/field coach at San Mateo High, CSM.

Bryan Thomasson, ex-Jefferson High/Skyline College star hoopster.

Sid Williams, former basketball star at Aragon High, San Jose St.
