28th Peninsula Sports Hall of Fame Event Set For March 29

Nine individuals will be inducted into the Peninsula Sports Hall of Fame during ceremonies March 29 at The Westin S.F. Airport Hotel in Millbrae.

The Hall of Fame banquet has been presented by the San Mateo County/Silicon Valley Convention and Visitors Bureau for the last several years.

The March induction event will be the 28th in a series which began in 1989.

The 2018 inductees are:

Isaac Carson, Jefferson High School – Talented track and field athlete and 1991 California Interscholastic Federation hurdles champion.

Caroline “KK” Clark, Sacred Heart Preparatory – 2016 Olympic Gold Medalist, Pan Am Games champion, and three time UCLA All-American water polo player.

Jack Daniels, Sequoia High School – 1956 Silver and 1960 Bronze Olympic Medalist pentathlon runner and physical education professor responsible for the development of state-of-the-art coaching techniques.

Julian Edelman, Woodside High School and College of San Mateo – Standout quarterback at CSM and Kent State University, and Super Bowl winning wide receiver for the NFL’s New England Patriots.

Jeremy Lin, Palo Alto High School – Play-making point guard for the NBA’s Brooklyn Nets, three-time Ivy League All-Conference player at Harvard University, and 2006 California Interscholastic Federation basketball champion at Palo Alto High School.

Julie Middleton, San Mateo High School – Outstanding two-sport, state-calibre athlete on the track and in the gymnasium at San Mateo High who took her dominating skills to Cal State-Northridge where she starred in basketball.

Larry Owens, Sequoia High School and College of San Mateo – Head Football Coach at the College of San Mateo for over 25 years, has led CSM students to victory in over 100 games. Also coached at Woodside High School and Humboldt State University.

Bill Shine, Menlo School – Tennis coach at Menlo School for over 20 years with an astonishing wins to losses record of 988-147.

Archie Williams, College of San Mateo – 1936 Olympic Track and Field Gold Medalist in the 400 meter event.

Currently, there are more than 250 sports figures in the Hall of Fame. Their plaques are on display in the San Mateo County History Museum in downtown Redwood City.
